Request for Proposals (RFP) for Miss CCT Crown

The Colville Confederated Tribes' Youth Development Program would like to request proposals from qualified artists who would like to bead the 2023-2024 Miss Colville Confederated Tribes (Miss CCT) crown as described below in the scope of work.

The Miss Colville Confederated Tribes delegate will represent our nation at various pow-wows, arranged events, and activities as an effort to bring positive recognition and promote important tribal initiatives. Historically, this ambassador position has existed within our tribe and neighboring tribes as a gesture of hospitality to welcome people to celebrate our culture and sovereignty at annual events.

Scope of Work:

All bidders will be required to provide an actual size sample design of the proposed crown. We request that the bead size for both items be no larger than a size eleven (11).

- Timeline for work will be from March 13, 2023- June 22, 2023
- Program will require bi-weekly progress updates of work

Miss CCT Crown:

Must identify the title (Miss Colville Confederated Tribes) and have a buckskin tie string for the back closure. The highest point on crown must be at least eight (8) inches.

- Specify bead size, type, colors, etc. in accordance with the sample design you provide.
- Specify other materials used (quality, type, etc.) as we attempt to match the Miss CCT sash colors as closely as possible.
- The Crown must be finished by: June 22, 2023 & turned into by 3:30PM PST.

1. Experience:

Provide a brief description of the number of years in experience and past projects completed that support the level and detail of work proposed in the design. Also, provide photo(s) of previous beadwork projects completed. Bidder must be willing to provide a sample of beadwork for review if requested.

2. Cost Proposal:

Provide your cost proposal in an invoice format and not to exceed total project amount of $1,800.00.
